Welcome and Introduction

Item 1.1.

Summons and Prayer.

The summons was taken as read.

Election of Cathaoirleach:

The outgoing Cathaoirleach, Cllr. Mark Fitzgerald welcomed colleagues, staff members and guests to the 2022 Annual Meeting and recalled the events and challenges of the past year against the most unusual background of the lockdown and the prevailing pandemic. Notwithstanding those challenges, he stated that he thoroughly enjoyed fulfilling the role and he derived immense pride in the honour bestowed upon him.

He considered that the Carrick on Suir Municipal District was particularly lucky in how it pulled together to get on with its work and he paid tribute to his elected colleagues and the management and staff whose focus was on delivery of first-rate services to the citizens of the District.

He spoke of the wonderful achievements during his tenure, with very significant projects brought to planning and design stage - the Carrick on Suir Regeneration Plan, River Suir Blueway connection to the Waterford Greenway were cases in point - that would stand in good stead for the area for generations to come. Closer to home, he looked forward to the development of the Carrigmaclear amenity and he was particularly proud to have hosted the Tidy Towns Awards in Councillor Dunne then took the chair. He thanked all present for their well wishes and spoke eloquently and at length of the honour he was happy to receive. He thanked his mentors -past and present - and his family for their support and unwavering trust and looked forward to wearing the chain of office with pride. He stated that he would work hard for all and do his best to promote the interests of the towns and villages in the wider District.

Election of Leas-Chathaoirleach:

Item 2.2.

Election of Leas-Chathaoirleach

The Cathaoirleach-elect called for nominee(s) for the position of Leas-Chathaoirleach for Carrick on Suir Municipal District for 2022-2023.

Cllr. I. Goldsboro nominated Cllr. K. Bourke for the role of Leas-Chathaoirleach. This was seconded by Cllr. K. O'Meara.

There being no further nominations, the Cathaoirleach-elect deemed Cllr. K. Bourke to be elected as Leas-Chathaoirleach of Carrick on Suir Municipal District for 2022-2023.

Cllr. K. Bourke thanked his proposer and seconder and expressed his delight to accept the position, while looking forward to working with the Cathaoirleach and supporting him in his role.
