

Culture Night 2025

Fri 19 Sept
ONE NIGHT FOR ALL

Applying to Hold Events in Tipperary

What is Culture Night?

Culture Night is an annual all-island public event that celebrates culture, creativity and the arts. It will take place on Friday 19th September, 2025 from 4pm till late. Arts and cultural organisations present hundreds of free events, tours, talks & performances for you, your family and friends to enjoy.

Building on the great success of previous years, County Tipperary will again celebrate Culture Night in 2025. Coordinated by Tipperary County Council, we are now inviting arts organisations, creative practitioners, artists, performers, community groups and schools to hold an event(s).

What's special about Culture Night?

- Everything is FREE of charge to the public.
- Doors will open later and special and unique events will be specifically programmed at participating locations.
- People are encouraged to visit cultural venues and experience culture and creativity in their area.
- It's a great opportunity for cultural organisations, artists, venues, artists studios, performers, galleries, art collections, archives, interesting buildings, places and spaces, museums, arts centres and libraries to reach new audiences.

Programming Content

Culture Night is about access, is geared at all ages, and provides a unique opportunity for everyone to make new discoveries in their area.

We encourage and support the inclusion of all voices and cultures that make up Ireland today. We seek to engage with and create opportunities for increased participation with those who may not always have easy access to events of a cultural nature, particularly but not limited to, the following:

- Asylum seekers, refugees and migrants.
- D/deaf culture or arts and disability.
- Irish Traveller culture.
- Under-represented groups.
- Those promoting gender equality.
